Money Talks

COMMENT:

"It is a barometer of market conditions."

"Now we can have up to the minute coin values."

"Certainly a handy bulletin. How can you handle it on a free basis?" (We don't —your orders make it possible.—Ed.)

THE MAGIC CARPET:

One of our A.K.'s (Kosoff) ran up the traveling expenses via United Air Lines—L.A. to Omaha for a nice visit with Dr. Judd —and both drove (saving money) to Cedar Rapids for the Iowa Numismatic Assn. Convention. Chiseled a ride from Loyd Gettys (and a night's lodging, too) to Davenport and then back to the air and New York. Visits to the Brooklyn Coin Club and the Chautauqua Club as well as with many friends made for a pleasant stay and then hurried back to Beverly Hills (and a return to Sunny Days). Interesting meeting at Cedar Rapids. In addition to Gettys and Judd, our Ed Fogler, Vernon Brown, Joe Moss, Dick Yeoman, Vernon Sheldon, Hal Klein—all of A.N.A. Exec. Board were there. Enjoyed visit from Sol Kaplan who came on to New York to chew the fat.

BOOKS:

We've had a little change of plans. That grand collection of coin books is now ours —purchased for cash. We'll incorporate some volumes into our own reference library and the others will be sold. Interested collectors should contact us. Yes, that contemplated auction is off.

REAGAN:

Our very efficient A.N.A. General Sec'y. made the West Coast again in June. San Diego, Orange County and Seattle Coin Clubs were visited. Looks like official circles recognize the trend westward. Yes—California now leads ALL states in A.N.A. membership, with New York dropping to second position.

DOING HOLLYWOOD was more fun for Lew and yours truly than we ever had on Broadway, and Jack Ogilvie was around to see that the A.N.A. didn't foot the bill. (Yes, dear partner, you paid half.)

CALIFORNIA State Numismatic Association's next convention site selected by Committee (Herb Bergen, Charlie Kiser, A. Kosoff). The Ambassador Hotel in Santa Monica October 9-10. Beach and pool facilities free to all guests. Make it a date!

BAY CITIES Coin Club held its May meeting at the Numismatic Gallery in Beverly Hills. An entertaining quiz program was the feature of the evening with prizes awarded to Jack Barnes and Mr. Howell. Dr. Kaffeseider played June host at his L. A. home.

NUMISMATIST—The A.N.A. is reprinting the first six volumes of the NUMISMATIST. It will be made available for $8.00. The original usually sells for $250.00. Order your copy from your dealer.

CENTENNIAL of California's Gold Discovery is commemorated in an octagonal medal. A nice, contemporary item, it sells at only $1.00.

CHARLIE RYAN, Genial Brooklyn Club President, has been added to A.N.A. Convention Committee. He tells us Boston is all set to out-buffalo Buffalo. "It'll be a party," he says, "and I don't mean tea!"

YOUR ORDER BLANK—Send it direct to Beverly Hills. The enclosed envelope requires no stamp—we pay the postage. And remember—someone else may get the coin you want because he got there first. The order blank is here, the envelope is here, the list is here. Well? What are you waiting for?

KEEP THIS ISSUE. Collectors are saving each issue of this monthly and intend to bind each volume at the end of the year. Besides — there may be some coins listed which you would like to order in a month or two.

WATCH for a Latin American Issue of the Monthly. Dubloons and pieces of eight—everything but Capt. Kidd and a bottle of rum.

FOREIGN CROWNS will also have an issue of its own. If you can't wait, send us your want list.

COLOR for our monthly? Some have suggested it. How do you feel?
